STATE OF OKLAHOMA,
Plaintiff,

vs.

CASE NO. CF-2026-60

DERAJE JACKSON,
Defendant.

PAM SMITH
BY  DEPUTY

NOTICE THAT APPLICATION HAS BEEN FILED FOR A DETERMINATION OF YOUR COMPETENCY

TO THE ABOVE NAMED DEFENDANT: DERAJE JACKSON

An Application has been filed requesting a determination of your competency.

1. According to 22 O.S. '1175.1.1., "competent" or "competency" means the present ability of a person arrested for or charged with a crime to understand the nature of the charges and proceedings brought against his, and the ability to effectively and rationally assist in his defense. A person may be incompetent due to physical disability;

2. According to 22 O.S. '1175.1.2., "incompetent" or "incompetency" means any person who is not presently competent;

3. Pursuant to 22 O.S. '1175.4., this Application for Determination of Competency may be conducted as a jury trial if so requested by you or your attorney;

4. The Applicant and any witnesses identified in the Application may offer testimony under oath at the hearing on the Application and you may not be called to testify against your will unless you have initiated this Application;

5. If you do not have any attorney to represent you, the court will appoint one to represent you until final disposition of your case;

6. If you are indigent or poor, the court will pay your attorney fees;

7. You shall be afforded every right guaranteed by state and federal law including the right to be tried by a jury, if demanded.

Respectfully submitted,
